Win Five of Six Games In Conference Action

By DICK BODNEY, '58

Nov. 10—St. Joseph's College, with one more game to play, has already enjoyed one of its most successful football campaigns in many years.

To date, under the guidance of second-year Coach Bob Jauron, the Pumas have won five games, lost three, and finished as Indiana Collegiate Conference co-champions for the first time in the school's history.

St. Joe, after losing the opening game of the season to Central State College of Ohio 26-14, ran up a string of four consecutive victories against ICC foes. On Sept. 24 the Pumas downed DePauw University 27-13 at Greencastle. The following Saturday, St. Joe came home to upset highly favored Valparaiso University 26-0. On Oct. 8, the Pumas traveled to Terre Haute, where they were an easy 27-0 conqueror of Indiana State. Returning home on Oct. 15 for the annual Homecoming Game, the Pumas outlasted a stubborn Butler squad to win 28-13.

'55 Homecoming Draws Big Crowd

Approximately 200 alumni, plus many wives and children, returned to St. Joseph's on Oct. 15 for the annual Homecoming weekend, highlighted by the Pumas' 28-13 win over Butler University.

Early arrivals among the alumni witnessed a student parade of automobiles and floats from Rensselaer to the campus. Students and townspeople, as well as alumni, displayed unusually high enthusiasm.

After the game (see separate story), alumni and guests adjourned to Raleigh Hall for refreshments and an informal get-together with faculty members and former school-mates.

In the evening a dance, sponsored by the sophomore class, honored the alumni as guests. Held in the Fieldhouse, the dance featured the music of Dan Belloc and his orchestra, and the crowning of a Homecoming queen.

Miss Florence Gallagher, who is "Miss Chicago of 1955" and third-place winner in the Miss America contest this year, was the Homecoming queen. She is a sister of "Jiggs" Gallagher, SJC sophomore.

Stopped by Evansville

On Oct. 22 the Pumas journeyed to Evansville to engage the Purple Aces of Evansville College. Here, the Aces broke St. Joe's winning streak as they downed the boys from Collegeville by the score of 26-13.

Evansville took advantage of St. Joe's timely miscues to gain the victory as they turned two intercepted passes into touchdowns and recovered three Puma fumbles deep in Evansville territory.

The Aces marched 54 yards for their first touchdown, with Fullback Ken Lutterbach scoring from the 14-yard line. The extra attempt was wide.

St. Joe's first tally came late in the second quarter when the Pumas put on their own 54-yard scoring drive. The pay-off play was Quarterback Ralph Tite's 24-yard pass to Halfback Bob Hamman in the end zone. The point-after-touchdown attempt was blocked to make the score 6-6 at the end of the first half.

Evansville's second touchdown came early in the third period, when the Aces took to the air to move the ball to St. Joe's 4-yard stripe. Two plays later, Lutterbach bulled over. This time the extra point was good to make the score 13-6 in favor of Evansville.

The Pumas tied the score via the air route as Tite passed 45 yards in four plays for the tally. The last aerial was a 6-yard pass to Fullback Norb Daigle in the end zone. Effing's extra point tied the score.

In the fourth quarter, with the ball on St. Joseph's 28 in possession of the Pumas, Evansville's Safety Man Dick Sinclair intercepted one of Tite's passes on the 36 and returned it to the 21. From here they drove for the score with Lutterbach plowing over from the one. The successful conversion gave the Aces a 7-point lead.

With less than two minutes to play, St. Joe started a desperate march for a touchdown that ended in disaster when Lutterbach intercepted a pass on the Puma 31 and went all the way for a TD. The extra point was blocked to

Results of Alumni Fund Appeal Top National Mark in First Try

Results of the 1955 Alumni Fund Appeal show that the contributions of St. Joseph's alumni exceed the national average for alumni fund drives—in its very first year. This information was released by Fr. John Lefko, chairman of the St. Joseph's Foundation and director of the Appeal.

Figures to be released to alumni in brochure form early in December show that 733 contributions brought $14,196.47 to the College this year. The 733 contributions, representing 23 per cent participation, was well above the national level.

The average gift of those contributing was $19.40, with the donations ranging from $1.00 to $540.

The class of '42 accounted for the highest total, $807, with the class of '51 contributing $766. Other classes with high totals were the class of '27 with $635; the class of '22 with $625; the class of '41 with $613; the class of '08 with $595; the class of '53 with $570; the class of '32 with $553; the class of '50 with $549; the class of '43 with $547; and the class of '05 with $540.

Designation of the gifts were as follows:

624 Unrestricted	$11,977.97
9 Faculty Salaries	48.00
17 Scholarships	206.00
6 Bennett Hall	62.50

Bequest Given College By Two Alumni Estates

St. Joseph's College was the recent recipient of two bequests, both from the estates of alumni. The College received $1000 from the estate of Msgr. James F. Connelly, '97, formerly pastor at St. Patrick's Church in Indiana Harbor.

A $500 bequest from the estate of Fr. Joseph Steinbrunner, '05, was also received. Fr. Steinbrunner had been stationed in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Gerald Spanjol, '52, Lung Cancer Victim

Gerald P. Spanjol, '52, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Spanjol of 6115 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, died July 5, 1955. Burial services were held July 7.

Spanjol, who was in the U. S. Army at the time, was a victim of lung cancer. He had only recently survived a serious case of pneumonia.

Just thought I'd write and let you know the news. On Sept. 24th, we had a daughter arrive at our house. Her name is Doris Ann, and she weighed 7 lbs., 14 oz.

I'll be returning to St. Joe's in February '56 to resume (and I hope complete) my studies. The Air Force is good enough to release me 67 days early so I can get back to Indiana in time for the second semester.

Has the September issue of CONTACT come out yet? If it has, I'd like a copy.

Yours truly,

While I was in basic training, Mom sent me the article in the Chicago Tribune about St. Joseph's football and the possibility of this being its last year. Now that basic is over and I get a chance to see a paper once in awhile, there isn't a Sunday morning that I don't rush to the Service Club to get hold of the Louisville Times. The past three Sundays were good news days, as St. Joe's defeated the two teams I never saw them beat. Ray Duda and I are both amazed and pleased that we are doing so well, and really feel as though St. Joe's has the team to beat this year.

I imagine there is quite a bit of excitement on campus, and that morale was never higher.

I was sorry I couldn't see them this year, but will still want to purchase a season's ticket to the future powerhouse of Indiana.

Very truly yours,

I did not leave St. Joe's as a sailor deserts a ship—mine was not an action of desertion. I was called to another battle-front. It was difficult to leave a new-found security and strong friendships existing on that very quiet midwestern front. I was happy there and am happy here Financially, I met (some) difficulty. It costs $500 more to attend school here. My job at the St. Joseph's Home takes care of summer expenses, and I pushed my way into a job as checker at the main school cafeteria. Everything is working out well, but not without a few pains; the joys either purify the pains or obscure them.

My most immediate joy is my job at St. Joseph's Home, where compensation is beyond just room and board. I am Dormitories, dining and study halls, and laboratory facilities will be available for 40 students on the campus of St. Mary Academy, with recreational and library facilities at new Mexico Western College. Transportation will be by station wagons and jeeps.

Total cost per student will be $275. Eight semester hours of credit can be allowed.

Faculty instruction will be given by Fathers Nieset and Donald Ballman, '47, who have devoted their past few summers to preparations for the course, and by Elmar A. Walter, Ph.D., also a member of the SJC faculty.

Additional information may be obtained by writing to Fr. Nieset, at St. Joseph's.

Collegeville Audience Hears Silvertones

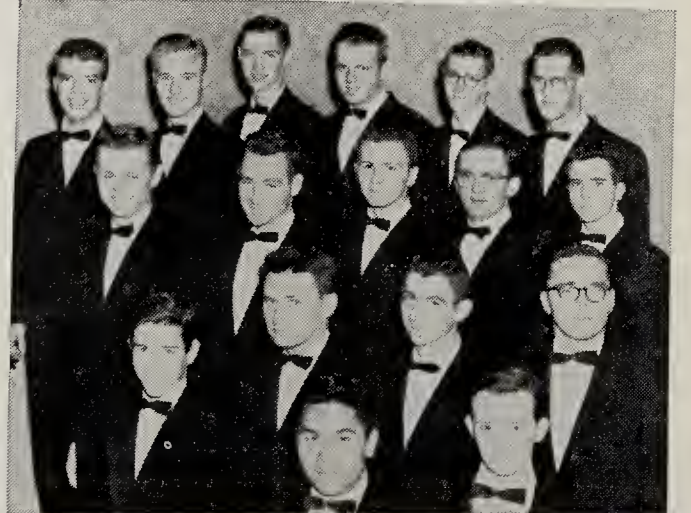

A concert by The Silvertones, first in the 1955-56 series at St. Joseph's, was enthusiastically received by the near-capacity audience on Nov. 8.

Their program on the St. Joe stage provided varied entertainment, from Bizet's "Agnus Dei" to "I Got Plenty of Nuthin'."

Fiorellas to Launch Million-Dollar Project

Owensboro, down in Kentucky, is about to have a new million-dollar motel! It will be called "Gabe's"—and SJC alumni who are in the habit of looking up their old schoolmate Gabe Fiorella, Jr., '50, for a steak and a chat, will find him there instead of at the famous restaurant by the same name on Frederica Street.

The Fiorellas' new project, to be built with another Owensboro citizen, James C. Ellis, is still in the planning stage. But the younger Gabe, who visited the campus earlier this month, is certain the motel will begin taking shape by spring.

Miller Field, home of the former Owensboro Oilers (now defunct), has already been purchased for the site. Comprising nearly six acres, the field is ideally located on Route 231, in the southeastern section of the city. Besides the new 100-unit motel, plans call for a drive-in bank, barber and beauty shops, laundry and dry-cleaning shops, swimming pool, and possibly a service station. Gabe's Restaurant, "the steak house of the South," will be moved there from the downtown location.

Now one of Kentucky's most famous eating places, the present Gabe's was founded by the senior Fiorella after humble beginnings with a small hamburger wagon in 1917. Still the vital force in the business' operation, the founder relies more and more these days on his lively assistant, Gabe, Jr. They operate the restaurant with what has been, for them, a magic formula—cleanliness, cheerfulness and tasty food. The place can seat 350 diners in the main room and three upstairs banquet rooms; they have 75 people on their payroll, serving more than 1400 meals a day, with an organist to set the atmosphere. Gabe's is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 52 weeks a year.

Gabe, Jr., the one from St. Joe's, is a family man himself now. His wife is the former Miss Betty Sue Terrill of Owensboro. They and their one daughter and two sons (last one, Joseph, just a few days old) live at 1815 Parish Ave.

It would be hard to tell which of the Fiorellas is more enthusiastic about Gabe's Restaurant and the plans for the future—but there seems little doubt that the popularity of their "cleanliness, cheerfulness and tasty food" will move right along with them to the new Gabe's.

Bulldogs Topple 28-13 As Pumas Score Early In Homecoming Victory

By DICK BODNEY, '58

The St. Joseph's Pumas kept their tradition of winning Homecoming games on Oct. 15, when they downed Butler University 28-13. It was St. Joe's sixth homecoming victory in the last ten years.

The Pumas wasted no time in breaking into the scoring column when early in the first quarter Butler's Safety-Man John Brown fumbled a punt on his own 2-yard line and Fullback Norb Daigle recovered for St. Joe. On the next play Quarterback Ralph Tite sneaked over for the score. Merle Effing added the extra point.

Within minutes of their first touchdown, the Pumas tallied again as Norb Daigle brought the Homecoming crowd to their feet when he galloped 47 yards for the score. Effing's extra point split the uprights.

Butler's first touchdown came in the second quarter when the Bulldogs' right tackle, Jim Baker crashed through to block Bob Hamman's punt and then fell on it in the end zone for the six-pointer.

St. Joe got the touchdown right back, however, when Butler's Defensive Halfback Dick Ahrendts fumbled a Puma punt on the Bulldogs' 37. George Sherwood made the recovery for St. Joe. Four plays later Tite punched over from the one. Effing's extra point gave St. Joe a 21-6 lead at halftime.

The Pumas played on the defensive for most of the second half and allowed Butler to score once in the third quarter.

With time running out in the game, St. Joe went on a sustained drive that ate up precious minutes on the clock and resulted in their final touchdown. The Pumas marched 64 yards in 15 plays for the tally. Tite scored his third touchdown, as he drove over from the one. Effing's conversion brought the 1955 Homecoming game scoring festivities to a close with the final score St. Joseph's 28—Butler 13.

St. Joe-Wabash Clash To Open Court Season

St. Joseph's College will open its 1955-56 basketball season on Dec. 1, when the Pumas play host to Wabash College in the St. Joe Fieldhouse.

This game will mark the opening of a 20-game schedule in which the Pumas play each of their Indiana Collegiate Conference foes twice, plus five non-conference opponents. The annual Alumni Game, which pits former St. Joe stars against the current varsity, will be played on Dec. 3.

The Wabash game will mark the midwestern debut of St. Joseph's new Coach Dale O'Connell, formerly of New Hampshire.

learning a dramatic lesson first-hand as to the psychology of children. Fifty boys, none past 14 years, all slightly emotionally immature, plague me as ambassadors of Christ. The director of the Home is an innovation, as she is the only nun in her order (Holy Cross Sisters) to receive advanced education in principles of psychology and group dynamics. I am watching her, the boys, I am reading—and forming is a concept of the real person against a Christian scheme.

Bill Herber, '41, Combines Spies, Secrets and Slayings in Thriller

Bill Herber, '41, a Chicago advertising executive, is the author of an "outrageous but readable red thriller" (Chicago Tribune review headline), published recently by Lippincott, "Live Bait for Murder," a 221-page novel, is available in bookstores for $2.75, and, if the various reviews are any indication, will enjoy a good sale and a large, satisfied reader audience.

With the permission of the Chicago Sunday Tribune, we quote directly from the review by Richard Blakesley, Oct. 16, 1955:

"What would you say," Dr. Clefftor asked Private Eye Jimmy Rehm, "if you knew that all the great state secrets regarding our defense, our atomic and hydrogen

"It would be wonderful," Rehm replied.

Well, sir, in Live Bait for Murder it really had happened and the United States secret service was dashing about like mad trying to find out what happened to the documents after the thief who was flying them to America for sale had been stabbed to death aboard the plane.

There wasn't much the government could do except kidnap Jimmy Rehm on his wedding day and put the case in his reluctant hands. Jimmy had distinguished himself last year (between drinks and visits to Chicago's Drake Towers) in solving a "King Size Murder," if you remember.

In Live Bait for Murder our hero dodges bullets in Clark St., makes love on the run, and finally collides with an assortment of fierce gulf coast Commies who also are looking for the stolen documents.

Bill Herber, a Chicago advertising executive, lives in Evanston in a house numbered 1313. He is an agile writer with a flair for creating suspense and plausible solutions to the most preposterous situations seen outside television.

Among Those Who "Came Home" on Oct. 15...

New Translation By Fr. Maziarz Now on Market

A translation by Fr. Edward Maziarz, '35, of Thonnard's A Short History of Philosophy was released by the publishers early this month.

Originally written in French by the Rev. F. J. Thonnard, A.A., the work was published in 1940, and a revised edition in 1948. It is the latter edition which Fr. Maziarz has translated into English.

Printed in Belgium, the 1074-page Maziarz work was published by Desclee and Cie, publishers to the Holy Apostolic See.

Fr. Maziarz, dean of St. Joseph's College, where he is also an associate professor of Philosophy, is the author of numerous articles and book reviews. His book, The Philosophy of Mathematics, was published in 1950.

In his Preface to A Short History of Philosophy, Fr. Maziarz extends his thanks to the SJC administration, to the many friends who encouraged and assisted him, and especially to Fr. Cletus G. Kern, '31, for his help in reading the manuscript, and to Elmund F. Byrne, '55, and James J. Brophy, a St. Joseph's sophomore, for their "painstaking work in reading and correcting proofs."

Pumas Co-Champs....

make the final score Evansville 26—St. Joe 13.

Tough for Ball State

On Oct. 29 the Pumas returned to the friendly confines of Collegeville to secure a co-championship of the ICC by beating Ball State 28-0.

St. Joe played a control-type of game as they scored once in the first quarter on a 2-yard plunge by Bob Hamman, capping a 43-yard scoring drive. In the second quarter, Ralph Tite drove over from one yard out after Hamman had set up the score by returning a Ball State punt to the Cardinal's 19. The final two touchdowns were scored in the third quarter, when Hamman tallied twice, one from the three and the second time from the five. Roger Lapointe added all four extra points.

Heidelberg Downs Pumas

On Nov. 5 the Pumas played host to unbeaten Heidelberg College of Tiffin, Ohio, and came out on the short-end of a 14-13 decision.

Heidelberg scored the first time in the opening period when Quarterback Bryon Powers passed 28 yards to Little All-American Halfback Walt Livingston for the touchdown. Matt Rock kicked the extra point. The Pumas scored in the opening minutes of the second quarter, when Ralph Tite scored from the one, climaxing a 56-yard scoring drive. Merle Effing missed the extra point, which proved St. Joe's undoing.

Livingston made the final Heidelberg touchdown of the afternoon when he scored from the two to put the finishing touches to a Heidelberg march of 52 yards. Rock again converted.

The Pumas were down in Student Prince territory for most of the second half, but could not score. With less than three minutes to play, Ralph Tite broke the spell when he passed 12 yards to End George Sherwood for the TD. This time Effing's extra point was good and the game ended with Heidelberg holding on to the slim one-point lead.

Saturday, Nov. 12, will be the final game of the season when the St. Joe Pumas host the Chicago branch of the University of Illinois.

HOMEcoming QUEEN FLORENCE Gallagher (of Chicago) hears Dance Chairman Bill Gleason, '58, discuss her realm-for-a-day. On the left is Miss Mary O'Connell of Milwaukee, who was escorted to the dance by Miss Gallagher's brother, Harold, a St. Joe sophomore.

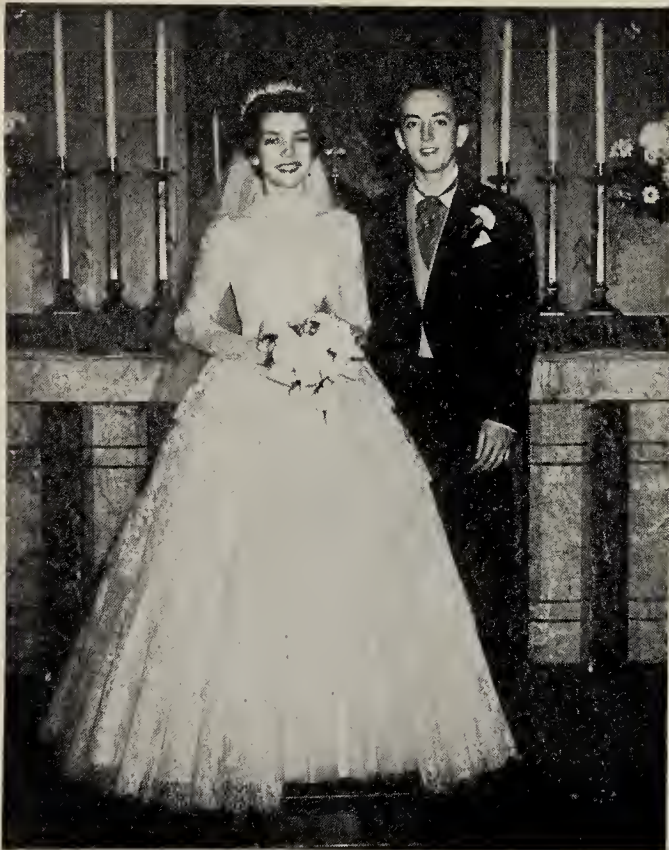

plans... had been stolen?"

"That's ridiculous," Rehm replied. "It would be impossible."

"You are right..." Then the doctor said: "Now what would you say if I told you that this had happened not to us but to Russia?"

Martin-Conlin Vows Solemnized

Jerry Martin, '57, was married Nov. 5 to Miss Jane Conlin, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Conlin of 621 Fleming Blvd., Rensselaer.

The nuptial high mass was celebrated by Fr. Francis Rehberger, '29, in St. Augustine's Church, where he is pastor.

The bridegroom, an employee of Inland Steel at Indiana Harbor while he waits for Army induction early next year, is a son of George J. Martin of 938 Summer Blvd., Hammond. Best man was Richard Highsmith of Calumet City, and one of the ushers was Carl Jaeger, an SJC sophomore.

A small group of Glee Club members from St. Joseph's provided a part of the music for the occasion.

A reception was held in the church hall from 2 to 4 p. m., with approximately 250 people attending.

Formerly an employee of the business office at St. Joseph's, the bride is now a member of the office staff of the Jasper County Farm Bureau.

Following a wedding trip through the South, Mr. and Mrs. Martin will be at home at 127½ Park Avenue, Rensselaer.

Two Dates Set For Glee Club

Two major concerts, one in December and the other in February, highlight St. Joseph's 1955-56 Glee Club schedule thus far completed.

With most of its plans still in the tentative stage, the club is preparing for the Christmas Music Festival at St. Joseph's on Dec. 13, and the annual Thorne Hall Concert on Feb. 12.

The music festival, also an annual affair, is held in the college auditorium. The Thorne Hall Concert is presented on the downtown campus of Northwestern University in Chicago, and is sponsored by St. Joseph's Fathers and Mothers clubs. The girls of the St. Francis Chorale of St. Francis College, Joliet, Ill. have been invited to participate in the concert.
